

AGENDA

Power and Prosperity: New Dynamics, New Dilemmas

November 15, 2007

Registration – 7:30 to 8:00 AM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, Lobby

Breakfast and Welcome – 8:00 to 9:00 AM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Center, McCaw Hall

8:30 – 9:00 AM

Opening Remarks:

Michael A. McFaul, Professor of Political Science; Peter and Helen Bing Senior Fellow, Hoover Institution; Acting Director, Freeman Spogli Institute (FSI)
The Hon. Warren Christopher, 63rd Secretary of State
The Hon. William J. Perry, 19th Secretary of Defense

Morning Session – 9:15 AM to 12:00 PM

Plenary I – 9:15 to 10:45 AM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, McCaw Hall

Asia's Triple Rise: How China, India, and Japan Will Shape Our Future

Chair: Gi-Wook Shin, Professor of Sociology; Senior Fellow, FSI; Director, Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center; founding director, Korean Studies Program

Panelists: The Hon. J. Stapleton Roy, Vice Chairman, Kissinger Associates, Inc.; former U.S. Ambassador to Singapore, Indonesia, and the People's Republic of China

China's Historic Rise

The Hon. Robert D. Blackwill, Former Deputy Assistant to the President, Deputy National Security Adviser for Strategic Planning, and Presidential Envoy to Iraq; former U.S. Ambassador to India
India's Ascent

The Hon. Michael H. Armacost, Shorenstein Distinguished Fellow, Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center; former U.S. Ambassador to Japan and the Philippines
Japan's Resurgence

Concurrent Breakout Sessions – 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM

The Francis C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, Fisher Conference Center

Center for Health Policy/Center for Primary Care and Outcomes Research (CHP/PCOR)

Is Democracy Good for Health?

How does governance affect a nation's health care and health? Is the delivery of essential medications for HIV or tuberculosis dependent on political reform? Is democracy good for health? This panel will discuss how governance influences health care delivery and the health of citizens.

Chair: Alan M. Garber, Henry J. Kaiser, Jr. Professor; Professor of Medicine and by courtesy, of Economics, and of Health Research and Policy; Senior Fellow, by courtesy, FSI; Director, CHP/PCOR

Panelists: Grant Miller, Assistant Professor of Medicine; CHP/PCOR Core Faculty Member

Douglas Owens, Professor of Medicine and, by courtesy, of Health Research and Policy; CHP/PCOR Core Faculty Member

Paul Wise, Richard E. Behrman Professor in Child Health; Professor, by courtesy, of Health Research and Policy; CHP/PCOR Core Faculty Member

Center for International Security and Cooperation (CISAC)

Nuclear Power without Nuclear Proliferation?

Nuclear power is gaining renewed attention in the midst of widespread concern over climate change. What are the prospects for increasing global reliance on nuclear power? Would a large increase in nuclear power increase the threat of nuclear proliferation and terrorism? If so, how could those risks be mitigated?

Chair: Scott D. Sagan, Professor of Political Science, Senior Fellow, FSI; Co-Director, CISAC

Panelists: David G. Victor, Professor of Law; Senior Fellow, FSI; Director, Program on Energy and Sustainable Development (PESD)

Robert Rosner, William E. Wrather Distinguished Service Professor, Astronomy & Astrophysics and Physics, University of Chicago and Enrico Fermi Institute; Director, Argonne National Laboratory

Siegfried S. Hecker, Professor (Research), Management Science and Engineering; Senior Fellow, FSI; Co-Director, CISAC; Director Emeritus, Los Alamos National Laboratory

Forum on Contemporary Europe (FCE)

A Changing Continent? Opportunities and Challenges for European Union Expansion

The European Union's expansion to 27 member nations promises a vast Euro-zone and a stronger trans-Atlantic partner. This panel will examine the benefits and concerns about economic growth, the challenges of political and social integration, and countervailing pressures for greater democratization and transparency.

Chair: Katherine R. Jolluck, Senior Lecturer, History and Acting Director, FCE

Panelists: Mark Leonard, Executive Director, European Council on Foreign Relations

Monica Macovei, Advisor on Anticorruption to the Prime Minister in Macedonia; former Minister of Justice, Romania

Wolfgang Münchau, Associate Editor and European Union Columnist, Financial Times

Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center (Shorenstein APARC)

Growing Pains – Growth and Tension in China

China's steady march toward world economic and political power is inevitable and giving rise to social protests, income inequality, environmental problems, corruption, and political tension within China and with her neighbors. Are these problems evidence of instability and political failure, or are these merely growing pains?

Chair: Andrew G. Walder, Denise O'Leary and Kent Thiry Professor of Sociology; Senior Fellow, FSI

Panelists: Jean Oi, William Haas Professor in Chinese Politics; Senior Fellow, FSI

Scott Rozelle, Helen F. Farnsworth Senior Fellow in International Agricultural Policy, FSI

Xueguang Zhou, Professor of Sociology; Senior Fellow, FSI

Luncheon – 12:30 to 2:00 PM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, McCaw Hall

1:00 to 2:00 PM

Luncheon Address:

Shashi Tharoor, Historian, Novelist, and former Under Secretary-General, United Nations
India's Future as a Great Power

Afternoon Session - 2:30 to 5:30 PM

Plenary II – 2:30 to 4:00 PM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, McCaw Hall

Critical Connections – Faces of Security in the 21st Century

Chair: Lynn Eden, Senior Research Scholar and Associate Director for Research, CISAC

Panelists: Larry Diamond, Senior Fellow, Hoover Institution; Coordinator, Democracy Program, Center on Democracy, Development, and the Rule of Law (CDDRL); founding Co-Editor, Journal of Democracy
Stabilizing Iraq: The Regional and International Stakes

Scott D. Sagan, Professor of Political Science; Senior Fellow, FSI; Co-Director, CISA)
Assessing and Addressing Nuclear Risks

Rosamond L. Naylor, Julie Wrigley Senior Fellow, FSI and Woods Institute for the Environment; Associate Professor, by courtesy, Economics; Director, Program on Food Security and the Environment (FSE)
Food Security and the Environment

Concurrent Breakout Sessions – 4:30 to 5:30 PM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, Fisher Conference Center

Center on Democracy, Development, and the Rule of Law (CDDRL)

Autocratic Hegemons and the National Interest: Dealing with China, Iran, and Russia

Contemporary China, Russia, and Iran represent distinct threats to U.S. national interests. All three are autocratic and all three are regional hegemons. What challenges do they represent to American national interests? This panel will explore political patterns within each country and discuss how the next U.S. administration can best deal with these rising powers.

Chair: Kathryn Stoner-Weiss, Senior Research Scholar and Associate Director for Research, CDDRL

Panelists: Larry Diamond, Senior Fellow, Hoover Institution; Coordinator, Democracy Program, CDDRL; Founding Co-Editor, Journal of Democracy

Michael A. McFaul, Professor of Political Science; Peter and Helen Bing Senior Fellow, Hoover Institution; Acting Director, FSI; Director, CDDRL

Abbas Milani, Research Fellow and Co-Director, Iran Democracy Project, Hoover Institution; Hamid and Christina Moghadam Director of Iranian Studies

Program on Food Security and the Environment (FSE)

Food Security, Climate Change, and Civil Conflict

The panel will explore the potentially deadly connections between climate change, food shortages, and civil conflict in the 21st century. What sorts of policies, investments, and adaptation strategies are needed to avert such conflict?

Chair: Rosamond L. Naylor, Julie Wrigley Senior Fellow, FSI and Woods Institute for the Environment; Associate Professor, by courtesy, Economics; Director, (FSE)

Panelists: David Lobell, Lawrence Fellow, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory

Edward A. Miguel, Visiting Associate Professor of Economics, Stanford; Associate Professor of Economics, University of California, Berkeley

Program on Energy and Sustainable Development (PESD)

Faces of Energy Security

“Energy Security” has rocketed to the top of policy agendas around the world. But what does it mean? This panel will explore how different countries and sectors have looked at energy security in varied ways and will discuss the implications for energy policy, investment, and international relations.

Chair: David G. Victor, Professor of Law; Senior Fellow, FSI; Director, PESD

Panelists: Bryan J. Hannegan, Vice President, Environment, Electric Power Research Institute (EPRI); former Chief of Staff, White House Council on Environmental Quality and acting Special Assistant to the President for Economic Policy

Chris Mottershead, Distinguished Advisor, Energy and the Environment, BP p.l.c.

Stanford Center on International Conflict and Negotiation (SCICN)

Overcoming Barriers to Conflict Resolution: The Middle East

Peace between Israelis and Palestinians – is it really possible? An expert panel of SCICN faculty and researchers will discuss the difficult barriers that prevent progress toward a settlement and what must be done to overcome them.

Chair: Allen S. Weiner, Senior Lecturer in Law, Stanford Law School; Co-Director, SCICN

Panelists: Byron Bland, Research Associate, FSI; Associate Director, SCICN

Bruce Jones, Research Professor of Politics; Director, Center on International Cooperation, New York University

Lee D. Ross, Stanford Federal Credit Union Professor of Social Psychology; Co-Founder, SCICN

Cocktail Reception - 6:00 to 7:00 PM

The Frances C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, Lobby

Dinner – 7:00 to 9:00 PM

The Francis C. Arrillaga Alumni Center, McCaw Hall

7:00 – 8:00 PM

Dinner Keynote Address

Gilles Kepel, Professor of Political Science; Chair, Middle East and Mediterranean Studies; and Director of the Doctoral Program on the Muslim World, Institute of Political Studies, Paris

Islamic Fundamentalism: On the Rise or the Decline?

8:00 – 9:00 PM

Dinner and Discussion

November 9, 2007