

AMERICA AND EUROPE AFTER BUSH

a lecture by

JOSÉ MARÍA AZNAR

Former Prime Minister of Spain (1996-2004)

José María Aznar, prime minister of Spain in 1996-2004, has been called the “man who returned Spain to the forefront of the world stage.” His government took decisive steps on a wide range of issues, from the economy to the War on Terror. His talk will focus on the many implications of the change in the American presidency in January 2009, and the new challenges facing the two sides of the North Atlantic.

with an introduction by

LARRY KRAMER

Richard E. Lang Professor of Law and Dean

November 17, 2008 at 4 p.m.
Room 290, Stanford Law School

RECEPTION TO FOLLOW IN THE LAW LOUNGE.

Please note NO backpacks, laptops, laptop cases, briefcases, cameras or any other electronic equipment will be allowed inside Room 290, and we will not provide storage for these items.

SPONSORED BY:

Stanford Law School

ILS International Law Society